INQUIRY REMOVAL AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered into _____, 2008 between New Credit History (hereinafter referenced as "Company") and _____ (hereinafter referenced as "Applicant").

By signing this Agreement, you, the Applicant, certify that you have questionable inquiries which should not be on your credit record and request Company to remove those inquiries. Furthermore, you testify that you intentionally sought out Company to perform the services referenced herein and request for Company to perform the aforementioned services without remorse or regret. You also warrant that you have not been counseled or advised to make any statement which is untrue or misleading and acknowledge that you were not forced or that misleading conduct was not performed to encourage you to sign this Agreement.

Company provides Applicants with professional service backed with integrity and honesty. If, for any reason, Company fails to remove any inquiries requested to be removed from Applicant's credit report, Company will provide full refund of fees per inquiry that remains of Applicant's credit report. This refund will be returned to Applicant within 45 days of executing this agreement.

During the term of service, if Applicant is unable to be reached by the e-mail or phone provided in Agreement and does not contact Company within ten business days of Company communicating with Applicant to request contact, Applicant understands and agrees that all services will be terminated, no refund will be given, and all fees will be due to Company.

Applicant agrees to hold Company harmless and defend it against all actions for performing this requested service.

By signing below, Applicant agrees to have read and understood this Agreement and to abide by it as set forth.

LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

Applicant here by grants a Limited Power of Attorney to Company for the express purpose of preparing and submitting information— written, verbal, or other— to any Credit Reporting Agency for the sole purpose of removing inquiries from the Applicant's credit files maintained by any Credit Reporting Agency. Further, Applicant authorizes Company to reproduce/replicate Applicant's signature, if necessary, specifically and only to accomplish the aforesaid service.
